NOTICE OF APPEAL OF FINAL JUDGMENT

TO THE CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT:

NOTICE is hereby given that Plaintiffs hereby appeal, to the United States Court of Appeals for the 3rd Circuit, from the final judgment of the District Court entered on May 15, 2007 after a jury verdict for Defendants, including failure of the Court to give certain requested voir dire questions and instructions to the jury. In addition, the Plaintiffs are appealing the following Orders:

1. Order of the District Court precluding the testimony of Plaintiffs' expert Robert L. Hannan, M.D. as to certain of his opinions regarding mortality data (Document 91);
2. Order of the District Court denying Plaintiffs Motion to Preclude the Defense expert testimony of Plaintiffs' treating physician, Jack Rychik, M.D. (Document 88)
3. Failure at trial to allow any cross examination of Defendant, Dr. Norwood's testimony (or any other witness) concerning the number of surgeries Dr. Norwood has performed and the outcomes of his surgical technique, including failure to allow into evidence certain documents; generally failure to allow any evidence as to outcomes.
4. Order of the District Court granting a Protective Order with regard to certain raw data sought from a third party, and denying discovery to Plaintiffs (Document 98).
